

Cassie Panton

Early Childhood Educator & Child Development Specialist

Cassie Panton is a dedicated educator with a lifelong connection to the Trinity community and a deep-rooted passion for early childhood development. Her journey in education began right where she teaches today, as a proud alumna of Trinity Lutheran School. After graduating from the eighth grade at Trinity, Cassie pursued her calling to support the growth and milestones of young children.

Education & Professional Background

Cassie attended Southeast Missouri State University (SEMO), where she earned her degree in Child Development. This academic foundation paved the way for a career defined by both classroom excellence and high-level leadership.

Before returning to her roots at Trinity, Cassie built a diverse professional portfolio:

- Missouri First Steps: Served as Director, overseeing critical early intervention services for children with developmental delays and their families.
- Centenary Preschool: Spent 4 years nurturing young learners and honing her instructional skills.

A Legacy at Trinity

For the past 8 years, Cassie has been a cornerstone of the teaching staff at Trinity Lutheran School. Her connection to the school is truly a family affair; her husband, Aaron Panton, serves as the school's Athletic Director, and together they have watched three of their own children attend Trinity.

As a devoted member of Trinity Lutheran Church, Cassie's work is more than just a career—it is a ministry. She is committed to creating a supportive, faith-filled environment where every child feels empowered to reach their full potential.
