

Sandy Bostic: A Legacy of Faith and Education

Sandy's career is a testament to her lifelong commitment to early childhood development and the community that raised her. A proud alumna of Trinity, Sandy's professional journey came full circle when she returned to her alma mater to inspire the next generation of learners.

Early Career and Foundation

Sandy's dedication to childcare began at the age of 18. Her early years were defined by hands-on experience, serving in local daycare centers until 1992 before transitioning to managing her own home daycare. These foundational years provided her with a deep, intuitive understanding of child development and the importance of fostering a nurturing environment for young children.

Academic Pursuit and Growth

Driven to formalize her expertise, Sandy attended Southeast Missouri State University (SEMO). While pursuing her degree, she remained active in the field, spending six years as an Afterschool Program Coordinator and Kindergarten Aide. She graduated from SEMO with a degree in Elementary Education, specializing in Early Childhood Education, a milestone that prepared her for a long-term career in the classroom.

Service at Trinity

In 2001, Sandy returned to Trinity as a First Grade teacher. Beyond her classroom responsibilities, she demonstrated her passion for holistic learning by helping to create the school's Garden Club, providing students with a unique, hands-on connection to nature.

Twelve years ago, Sandy transitioned to the Pre-K department, where she continues to serve today. Her tenure at Trinity is marked by a rare blend of historical perspective as a former student and professional excellence as a veteran educator.

Professional Excellence

Sandy's commitment to her craft is reflected in her ongoing academic achievements. She currently holds a Master's Degree in Curriculum and has successfully completed her Colloquy program, further aligning her teaching ministry with the mission of Lutheran education.

With decades of experience and a heart for service, Sandy remains a cornerstone of the Trinity faculty, dedicated to the spiritual and academic growth of her youngest students
